

BRAND & DESIGN SYSTEM

BRANDING KIT

The complete identity, interface and creature system for EVOLUTION — a risk-escalation game where one wager grows through a chain of evolutions.

Evolve or cash out

The brand is built around a single tension: every step forward is worth more and safe for one moment less. The visual language is a clinical genetics lab, never a casino floor.

PROMISE	FEELING	NOT THIS
You decide how far the organism goes. Nothing decides it for you.	A controlled experiment turning unstable. Precision under rising pressure.	Gold coins, slot reels, cartoon mascots, confetti, fake urgency.
CLARITY FIRST A new player understands bet, multiplier and two buttons in three seconds.	NUMBERS ARE THE ART Multipliers and payouts take the largest type on every screen.	RISK STAYS VISIBLE The chance of failure is stated before the player commits, never hidden.
EARNED SPECTACLE The UI stays quiet until 100x. Effects mark real thresholds only.

THE MARK

A reptilian pupil inside a helix ring. It reads at 16px in a browser tab and at billboard scale without modification.

RULES

Clear space equals the height of the mark on all sides.

Two lockups only: horizontal and stacked.

Minimum wordmark width 120px; below that, mark alone.

Never rotate, outline, gradient, or place on a photo without a plate.

Usage ratio: roughly 80% near-black surfaces, 15% ash and bone text, 5% accent. Accent is reserved for the live multiplier, the primary action and active mutation states — never decoration.

ARCHIVO — INTERFACE & DISPLAY

Aa0123

Weights 500 / 700 / 800. Headlines, creature names, buttons, labels.
Tight tracking at display sizes, normal below 20px.

JETBRAINS MONO — DATA & MULTIPLIERS

17.00x

Every number a player can win or lose: multipliers, balance, payouts, seeds, counters. Fixed width keeps digits from jumping as values tick.

Every form inherits the previous form's spine curve and eye position, then adds mass. Three constants across all 31 forms: one visible eye, an asymmetric left-heavy stance, and a silhouette that fills 80% of a 1:1 frame. Renders sit on transparent black with no ground plane, key light from the top left and a rim light in the world's accent hue.

Never a scene — always depth without a horizon: near dust, mid fog, far specks, fixed vignette. Particle density and speed scale with the multiplier, not the level, so the room gets louder only when real money is on the table.

Before anything ships

- 01 Bet, multiplier and the two actions are readable in three seconds.
- 02 Fail chance is stated before the player commits, in the same glance as the button.
- 03 Exactly one filled button per view; cash out is outlined but never greyed.
- 04 Every number a player can win or lose is set in JetBrains Mono.
- 05 Accent colour appears only on the live multiplier, the primary action and active mutations.
- 06 Verify-fairness is one tap from every outcome, win or loss.
- 07 Session, loss and cool-off limits are reachable from the game screen, not buried in settings.

RULE OF THUMB

If a screen element does not help the player decide whether to evolve or cash out, it does not belong on the game screen.
